OFFICIAL INVITATION: CISOR Mountain survival basic course 2024

Dear Sir,

We are pleased to invite participants from your nation to take part in this edition 2024 of the CISOR Mountain survival basic course. This is a tough competition for skilled soldiers.

The competition is scheduled to be hold from Thursday 18.07 till Sunday 21.07.2024 in Vaud and Valais cantons, South-Western Switzerland. The course includes climbing skills, combat shooting, bivouac and high-altitude walking (below 3'000 m elevation).

Each participant is responsible for the transportation expenses to the course meeting point (Aigle railway station on Thursday morning). Foreign participants can wear their official uniforms only when they have received protocol letter from their administration. Otherwise, they have to wear civilian clothes in plain green, coyote or grey (free camo and black dresses are not authorised).

The competition fee is 250 CHF per participant and must be paid by bank transfer before 08.07.2024. However, only the first 6 payments will participate, so an early payment guarantees final participation.

For the registration of your team and all related information such as material, please go to the following website:
